

79th Judicial District Community Supervision and Corrections Department
JOB POSTING

Job Title: In-House Counselor

Prepared Date: August 28, 2025

Closing Date: Open until filled

Salary: $45,000.00

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS: A Master's or Bachelor's Degree conferred by an institution of higher education by an accrediting organization recognized by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board; and be Licensed as a Professional Counselor or Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors.

DEPARTMENTAL REQUIREMENTS: Valid Texas Driver's License, proof of liability insurance, available to attend out of town training, acceptable /clear criminal history records and negative urinalysis result prior to final selection process. Experience with the target population (Chemically dependent participants) will take preference.

JOB TASKS: Establish individualized treatment plans for participants of the Drug Alcohol Court Diversion Program. Administer Substance Abuse assessments, provide and /or incorporate a cognitive behavioral component within the treatment plan, promote pro-social behaviors, and provide recommendations for referrals to other treatment resources as needed. Work collaboratively with treatment providers and/or CSCD programs as part of the individualized treatment plan. Treatment coordination must be conducted in a manner consistent with standards promulgated by the Community Justice Assistance Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice and as envisioned by the Director of the Jim Wells/Brooks Community Supervision and Corrections Department.

Submit a Resume' and College Transcript to:

Ruben G. Valerio, Director

79th Judicial District CSCD

610 E. Second Street

Alice, Texas 78332

Direct all questions by email to rvalerio@co.jim-wells.tx.us